

Beyond Associés continues to grow with the arrival of two associates, experts on emerging countries

Sonia de Demandolx heads the Beyond Associés Brazilian office in São Paulo where she is building up its “French Desk”. After she graduated from ESCP Europe and obtained a BA in Law from Paris X University, she began her career at Lazard and then joined the Paris-based Russell Reynolds office, where she created and led the Corporate Finance and Private Equity Practice. She has been living in Brazil since 2011, leading the Consumer and Retail Sector activity of Russell Reynolds until 2013.

Rodolphe Monnet joins the Paris-based Beyond Associés office where he supports clients in sectors including, Health and Life Sciences, Insurance and the Public Sector. He holds a master’s degree in risk management from HEC and a master’s degree in Law from Lille 2 University. He started his career at the General Secretariat for Defense and National Security. After an experience as Chief of Staff of the Minister of Social Affairs office, he spent 3 years at the Embassy of France in India as Counselor for Health and Social Affairs.

These recruitments reinforce the international and multicultural orientation of Beyond Associés.
